The Digestive System to Color

Name: _____

Color the digestive system using the colors indicated below.

mouth (pink)

salivary glands (yellow)

esophagus (pink)

liver (brown)

stomach (beach)

pancreas (pink)

gall bladder (yellow)

small intestine (pink)

large intestine (dark pink)

rectum (dark pink)

anus

Organs of the digestive system:

mouth - where food enters the digestive system, leads to the muscular pharynx

salivary glands - glands that secrete saliva into the mouth, saliva moistens food and contains an enzyme to break down starch

esophagus - muscular tube that connects the throat and stomach, food passes through a circular muscle to enter the stomach, food moves by peristalsis stomach - a hollow, J-shaped muscular organ of the digestive system, contains enzymes and acid to help digest food, stores food and releases it through a circular muscle into the small intestine

liver - organ that produces bile to break down fats

gall bladder - small organ that stores bile produced by the liver

pancreas - organ that produces pancreatic juice, which is used to break down food small intestine - 30 feet long tube that connects the stomach to the large intestine, 1.5 inches wide, body large intestine - 5 feet long tube that connects to the small intestine, 3 inches wide, where water and some minerals are absorbed, solid waste moves to lower end, food moves by peristalsis rectum - lower part of the large intestine where solid wastes are stored

anus - muscular opening at the end of the rectum where solid waste is eliminated from the body

MOUTH

Food enters the alimentary canal through the mouth. It is chewed by teeth and broken into smaller pieces. The food is mixed with saliva that contains enzymes.

LIVER

In the digestive system, the liver produces bile which helps with the digestion of fats and oils.

GALLBLADDER

The gallbladder is where bile is stored and concentrated.

PANCREAS

Biological catalysts called enzymes are produced in the pancreas. Digestive enzymes speed up the breaking down of large nutrient molecules.

SMALL INTESTINES

Food is mixed with digestive enzymes and bile in the small intestine. The enzymes speed up the digestive process. Nutrients are then absorbed into the bloodstream.

ESOPHAGUS

The oesophageal tube connecting the mouth to the stomach is called the esophagus. Food is pushed down using a wave like muscular motion called peristalsis.

STOMACH

The stomach is the muscular organ where food is mixed with gastric juice. Gastric juice has a low pH, meaning it is acidic, and is used to help digest food and kill potentially harmful bacteria.

LARGE INTESTINES

The large intestine are made up of two parts: the colon and the rectum. In the colon, water is reabsorbed from the food. Faeces are stored in the rectum until they are ready to be passed.

ANUS

Faeces leave the alimentary canal through the anus.
